

Bellydancing UW proudly presents

Greco-Turkish Gypsy Fantasy Delight: Leaps, Spins, Turns and Traveling Steps and 10th Annual Spring Show
Featuring *Melina of Daughters of Rhea!

Saturday, April 10th

Melina of Daughters of Rhea (Melinda Pavlata, PhD) is a second-generation belly-dance artist, circus performer, choreographer, and writer. She co-founded the Daughters of Rhea Belly Dance Company, Cirque Passion European Family Circus, and the ALS Therapy Development Institute. She was a Ben Franklin Fellow at the University of Pennsylvania and an adjunct professor of French literature at Boston College before fully rededicating her life to her family legacy of belly dance and circus arts. Melina has been featured on 60 Minutes II, National Public Radio's Marketplace, the New Yorker, and the documentary So Much, So Fast. She is a featured presenter at Kripalu Center of Yoga and Health, where she teaches her "Wild Hips, Gypsy Heart: Belly Dance as Self-Empowerment" retreat. More info on Melina and her belly dancing family at www.daughtersofrhea.com.
